

HONEY..HONEY..LION!

Lion

My first night on safari I woke up in the middle of the night when I heard a train go by. A train hundreds of miles into a game reserve? No, it was a lion! Male lions look like big kitty cats during the day, tousling each other and caring for their cubs. At night they change into fearsome predators, all muscle.