

My favorite scene is the Chinese Dance because it begins with a Bassoon solo. when I closed my eyes, it sounded like a magnificent, benevolent dragon puffing a song.

I love the Mother Ginger Character in the Ballet. She lifts her huge skirt so the Polichinelles, child-clowns can appear and dance, it's adorable and it reminds me of my hens with chicks. In the ballet she is played by a man because the huge skirt is so heavy. Sharp eyes will notice my Mother Ginger is really a rooster!
